

Universal Stainless Announces Tool Steel Base Price Increase

BRIDGEVILLE, Pa., July 13, 2006 -- Universal Stainless & Alloy Products, Inc. (Nasdaq:USAP) today announced a 4% base price increase on all tool steel plate products. This price increase will be effective on shipments scheduled on or after July 24, 2006.

President and CEO Mac McAninch commented: "Our raw material and natural gas surcharge mechanisms remain effective. This price increase is necessary to help offset the rising costs of electricity and our manufacturing supply costs, while enabling us to continue our reinvestment in equipment and facilities to better serve the needs of our customers."
